IPC FCE MEDAL POLICY

1 Medals

- 1.1 Medals will be awarded to individual competitors placed first, second and third in any valid FAI/IPC event and to all members of any team placed first, second and third in any valid FAI/IPC event.
- 1.2 The necessary medals will be supplied by the Organiser, who will pay any and all costs associated with supplying such medals.
- 1.3 The number of medals required will be determined by the Chair of the relevant IPC Competition Committee.
- 1.4 The medal must reflect the title, location and nature of the FCE in question.
- 1.5 The Organiser has the option to purchase the medals from the FAI/IPC (IPC medals) or to supply the medals from another source.
- 1.6 If the medals are not purchased from IPC, the medals must be of at least the same quality and size as the IPC medals and must have on one face the same logo and words as the IPC medals. The Organiser will obtain the approval of the FAI Controller for the quality and design of any medals that are not IPC Medals.

2 Diplomas

- 2.1 Diplomas will be purchased from FAI.

3 The Organiser Agreement

- 3.1 The Organiser Agreement will clearly state that all necessary medals and diplomas will be purchased and paid for by the Organiser.
