Comments:

One hour before the general briefing, I briefed the three jury members on their duties.

I told the team leaders that the meetdirector and the chief judge had checked the competition venues so that we could begin the competition the next morning.

On March 14, 2025, after skiing had finished at 12:30 p.m., we wanted to start with Accuracy Landing at around 1.30 p.m., but visibility was poor.

At 5:00 p.m., the AL was canceled for the day.

On March 15, 2025, the weather was so bad that the MD canceled at 5:00 p.m. AL.

On March 16, 2025 we wanted to start at 8:30 a.m., but the weather was too bad to begin.

The MD sent up on 10:00 a.m., the Helicopter for checking the cloud base but only 600m

At 1:30 p.m. the MD gave a team leaders briefing and canceled the competition.

The OC tried everything to hold the competition with the minimum of rounds – but the weather didn't allow it.

The Austrian Aeroclub had to pay all FAI monetary demands in Swiss francs.

This always represents additional cost for the OC/AC!

Perhaps the FAI should consider converting the costs and transfers to euros, as this would like to help the organizers!
