Personal Statement: What role did Aeromodelling play in your life and what are your aspirations for the future? (One page to be written in the Nominee's own hand and attached to this form. If written in a language other than English, then please attach a typed translation as well as the hand-written original.)

As mentioned above, I had a tough time in school from 4th grade onwards. I was not able to ~~match~~ match the writing or the copying from the board speed with other classmates. I started getting lower marks in exam. Teachers used to think I was lazy and doing these things on purpose and I used to get punished a lot. I did not understand why this was happening with me.

I started losing interest in school or ~~for~~ learning anything. I used to like ~~to~~ to do a lot of practical projects and make working models from early age. So I used to draw diagrams of models (cars, planes, and other equipments), designing new game screens, various novel ideas, etc.

Once I saw an aeromodelling show of ~~the~~ electric airplanes and liked it very much, I then learned basic glider flying and I was able to do it easily. This got me very much interested in model airplanes. ~~my~~ My family supported me and I was able to get different models from small foamy gliders to now 35% scale aerobatic planes.

I can build electric planes as well as completely assemble large models including engine electronics and all ~~the~~ other parts. I can do the transmitter settings as well as the settings of the power-system / servo setup. I have a workshop with tools.

Aeromodelling has changed my life, it gave me a goal to achieve something and gave confidence that I can do good or even ~~top~~ in something ~~Because~~ Because of this confidence I completed school at my own pace and now I am in junior collage. I know my abilities in drawing, designing and construction. I want to do something where these abilities can be applied. I would like to learn product designing and do my graduation if possible in it.

I ~~have~~ ~~now~~ now ~~know~~ know that I have special abilities and there are somethings that I will find difficult to do. But I also know ~~I~~ that with efforts I can do complex things as well.

I also want to top the aerobatics champions (F3M) in International / Unlimited category in the near future.

Thank you,
Sincerely,

Harshil
